

The inspiring story of how five courageous African American mothers and their children marched for two years for school integration in Hillsboro, Ohio.

THE LINCOLN SCHOOL STORY

A Battle for School Integration in Ohio
Film Screening and Discussion

Guests: Kati Burwinkel, Highland County Historical Society, and women who marched as students from 1954-1956

Wednesday, November 8, 7:30-9:00 PM

Mt. Washington Presbyterian Church

6474 Beechmont Avenue, 45230

Presented by:

RSVP to www.linschool.eventbrite.com

or by email to acru@cinci.rr.com

Visit www.gappeace.org

This program is free and open to the public.